KARL EIKENBERRY

THE NEW UNITED STATES

AMBASSADOR TO AFGHANISTAN

A CONGRESSIONAL US-AFGHAN CAUCUS & AFGHAN-AMERICAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE JOINT EVENT

The Afghan-American Chamber of Commerce (AACC) in conjunction with Congresswoman Sheila Jackson Lee (TX) and Congressman Joe Wilson (SC), co-chairs of the U.S.-Afghan Caucus, cordially invite you to attend a “Meet and Greet” reception for Ambassador Eikenberry to take place on May 5, 2009 from 5:30-7:00 P.M. in room 2200 of the Rayburn House Office Building, U.S. Congress, Independence Avenue and South Capitol Street, Washington, DC 20003.

Ambassador Eikenberry will be available to discuss his new role in Afghanistan. Confirmed by the Senate on April 3, 2009, the Ambassador leaves the U.S. having served as a Lieutenant General in the Army where he completed two tours of duty in Afghanistan as the United States Security Coordinator for Afghanistan and Chief of the Office of Military Cooperation-Afghanistan (OMC-A). Ambassador Eikenberry holds a M.A. in East Asian Studies from Harvard and a M.A. in Political Science from Stanford.

Refreshments will be served. Appropriate staff members welcome to attend with member.

Congresswoman Jackson Lee, Congressman Wilson and the Afghan-American Chamber of Commerce (AACC) look forward to your attendance at this exciting event. Please RSVP and if you have any questions, contact AACC at 703.442.5005 or info@a-acc.org for further information.

About

AFGHAN-AMERICAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

AACC serves the interests of its members through numerous programs, advocates for a free and open market economy in Afghanistan, and endeavors to strengthen U.S.-Afghan economic relations. AACC works to ensure that Afghanistan's economy and the employment of the Afghan people remains a priority for U.S. and Afghan policymakers and serves as a link between business and government to encourage progressive economic policies that will result in increased business and investment between the U.S. and Afghanistan. It is the goal of AACC to promote the exchange of information and provide resources to members through investment conferences, seminars, networking events, publications, and other avenues to stimulate U.S.-Afghan business and investment.
